

Consultant Profile

Health and Safety

Carolyn Mallard

(CMIOSH)

Consultant

Carolyn started her working career in the field of finance, initially as the head of finance for the Magistrates Court in North Kent. After a promotion to the Kent Count Constabulary as Admin and Finance Service Manager, she then transferred to set up and head the Health and Safety Unit for the Force. She has worked at National level on various Police committees relating to Health and Safety, Welfare and Disability issues working closely with the Home Office on the implementation of the Police Health and Safety Act. Carolyn was also a member of the Employers Forum on Disability (Police).

She is a professional safety practitioner with almost 20 years experience in the field of health and safety, having worked in both the public and private sector. She holds an MSc in Occupational Safety and Health and is a Chartered Member of the Institute of Occupational Safety and Health, and a Chartered Safety Practitioner.

